

BookSmiles

LOOKING FOR STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

We invite students 16 years and older to volunteer at BookSmiles--hold a book drive or come in to sort!

- Coordinate and run a book drive at your former elementary school as your service project.
- Exposure to the idea of philanthropy and upcycling.
- Experience the operations of our facility.
- Interact with other volunteers and staff.
- We provide service hours for graduation requirements.
- We can provide letters of recommendation for NHS and college applications.

➔ For individuals, scan QR code to go to the BookSmiles Volunteer page.

➔ For groups of up to 24, or any questions, contact Karen@booksmiles.org

BookSmiles is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit whose mission is to help all children build their own library, one story at a time. Since its inception, BookSmiles has promoted literacy and the joy of reading by giving nearly two million books to New Jersey and Philadelphia children who need them most.