

Robert A. Meyer

Rob Meyer is passionate about his work in the community as an extension of a full and satisfying career as an executive level development professional. For more than 35 years he has led successful financial resource development efforts for the Philadelphia Jewish Federation, Sarasota – Manatee Jewish Federation and JEVS Human Services. At the beginning of his career Rob worked at Bellevue Psychiatric Center, and with Southeast Asian youth in the Portland, Oregon public school system. These experiences were instrumental in shaping his focus on the transformative power of improving people’s lives through enhancing life changing, community-based programs and experiences.

He has worked with organizations focused on educational opportunities, human services, sports-based youth development, vocational development, and Jewish communal service. He is skilled at lay/professional relationships, especially at building development infrastructure which promotes board leadership to be partners in relationship-based fundraising. Rob has extensive experience in assisting organizations with top-down leadership development and planning strategic leadership succession.

Rob has served as a VISTA volunteer, a big brother for Big Brother/Big Sister League, and a foster parent.
